2012 Congressional Voting Record

THE 112TH CONGRESS, 2ND SESSION: DEADLOCK AND DYSFUNCTIONAL

The story of the second session of the 112th Congress was “More of the Same.” In the House of Representatives, the Tea Party-controlled Republican Party pursued an anti-government, anti-poor-people policies most fully embodied in the Ryan Budget. For many years, Republican strategy has been to peddle wolves-in-sheep’s-clothing measures, with the media usually playing the gullible sheepdog. Each time Rep. Paul Ryan (R-WI) introduces variations on his budget, he pays lip service to “fiscal responsibility” while the media lauds his “courage.” In fact, Ryan’s spending plan would gut food aid for the working poor, health care for millions of Americans, clean air and water regulations, preservation of public lands, infrastructure repair, scientific research, education— all to “courageously” hand tax bonanzas to millionaires and corporations, thereby adding to deficits, not reducing them.

For liberals, true fiscal responsibility would begin with putting Americans back to work by investing in America: building 21st century infrastructure essential to the nation’s future prosperity, creating good paying American jobs, and turning the unemployed into taxpayers. Our second step would be to make our tax code more progressive by taxing unearned income (from capital gains and dividends) at the same rate as earned income (on wages and salaries); collecting the taxes actually due from multinational corporations hiding profits and shipping jobs overseas; ending handouts to super-profitable oil, gas, and mining companies; levying a carbon tax that would begin to address environmental damage and global warming; and enacting a financial transaction tax that could place a damper on speculation while raising hundreds of billions of dollars. But the liberal agenda didn’t have a chance in this deadlocked and dysfunctional Congress.

The Newspeak, purposeful misnaming of initiatives is an old Republican trick (think union busting masquerading as “Right to Work”). This session Republicans offered a bill that shielded drug and medical device manufacturers from liability for harm they cause and called it “Protecting Access to Health Care”; a bill to deprive women in Washington, D.C., of a right to choose named the “Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act”; two bills to weaken environmental protection and to boost oil, natural gas and mining on public lands known, respectively, as the “Conservation and Economic Growth Act” and “National Strategic and Critical Minerals Production Act”. They attempted to undermine consumer protection with the “Red Tape Reduction and Small Business Job Creation Act.” Rep. Sandy Adams (R-FL) even introduced H.R. 4970: Violence

THE 112TH CONGRESS: 2ND SESSION

Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2012, which sounds innocent enough, until closer inspection reveals it to be an attempt to take away protections for battered women, lesbians, American Indians and undocumented workers.

In the second session of the 112th, the House leadership was led from behind. In days of yore, with enlightened Republican leadership of the likes of Bob Michel (R-IL) – no pal of ADA – bipartisan compromises were possible. Today Speaker John Boehner (R-OH) refuses to allow the House to take up any bill not supported by a majority of his party, rejecting the very notion of compromise legislation.

The amazingly productive 111th Congress of 2009-2011 now seems a distant memory. It faced a national economic collapse, yet came together to pass controversial laws like the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (the “stimulus”), the Affordable Care Act (health care reform, or “Obamacare”), and the Dodd-Frank financial reforms of Wall Street. It also advanced children’s health insurance, fair pay for women, and overturned the discriminatory “don’t ask, don’t tell” policy on gays serving in the military. In contrast, the 112th was highly polarized and preoccupied with one self-imposed crisis after another – forever rattling a fragile economy recovery by flirting with government shut downs, debt defaults, and other “fiscal cliffs” of its own construction. On the whole, the 112th has been the most unproductive and dysfunctional Congress since ADA was founded in 1947.

In ADA’s 2010 Voting Record, we highlighted how, even as the 111th Congress was making some of the greatest legislative steps forward in some 40 years, its Republican minority was stepping farther to the right. It’s no surprise that this trend continues with the GOP in control of the House and the Tea Party in control of the GOP. This marks the fifth straight year that the House Republican caucus--as measured by ADA scores--has moved further rightward, polarizing the chamber and the nation.

This marks the fifth straight year that the House Republican caucus has moved further rightward.

The Senate suffered its own version of “More of the Same.” Like last year, the Senate Democratic majority rejected the House’s right-wing extremist bills, preventing them from becoming law, but Senate Republicans blocked progressive Democratic bills by means of the silent filibuster. Even when a bill had the support of a majority of Senators, it couldn’t pass. Once Minority Leader Mitch McConnell (R-KY)—or any other Republican senator—announced an intention to filibuster a bill, 60 votes (enough to invoke cloture and end debate), not a simple majority, was required for passage. Thus the Republican minority blocked bills requiring disclosure of corporate, labor, and super PAC campaign contributions; ending tax subsidies for major energy companies and promoting renewable energy and conservation; providing a minimum effective tax rate on high-income taxpayers, strengthening the Fair Labor Standards Act; lowering student loan interest rates; eliminating tax breaks for companies that ship jobs overseas. The Republican minority also blocked the confirmation of numerous qualified presidential nominees for executive and judicial offices, including a nomination to the US Court of Appeals.

Much can be said for rules that allow extended debate, so a simple majority doesn’t slip bills through the Senate in dark of night, unnoticed by the public. But at present much of the public doesn’t understand why a legislative body with a Democratic majority can’t legislate, creating a corrosive cynicism in the body politic. Common sense Senate rules reform is long overdue.

An amendment offered by the Congressional Progressive Caucus which would balance the budget by reducing military spending and allowing Bush-era tax cuts to expire as scheduled. Failed 78-346: March 29, 2012. A yes vote is a +.

3. House Vote 151 - H Con Res 112 – Limits Federal Appropriations for Fiscal Year 2013-2022 (“Ryan Budget”). Adoption of the Ryan (R-WI) Budget that would cut domestic social programs, education, scientific research, essential infrastructure, and Medicare, provide tax breaks for millionaires, oil companies, and special interests, rewarding companies that ship jobs overseas, cutting funds for state support of nursing homes and disabled individuals. Passed 228-191: March 29, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

4. House Vote 177 - H.R. 9 – Small Business Tax Cut Act. Passage of a $46 billion tax cut to 99.6% of businesses, including hedge funds and private equity firms, not just small business. The cuts favor such a broad segment of the wealthy – via deductions, which favor higher incomes, rather than credits -- that they don’t target investment in U.S. jobs. Passed 235-173: April 19, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

5. House Vote 192 - H.R. 3523 – Cyber Intelligence Sharing and Protection Act. Passage of a law that protects corporate proprietary rights more than personal identifiable information and civil liberties. It would reduce personal privacy by allowing for the sharing of cyber threat information between the intelligence community and cyber-security entities. Passed 248-168: April 26, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

6. House Vote 195 - H.R. 4628 – Interest Rate Reduction Act. 7. House Vote 249 - H.R. 5326– Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2013. Passed 247-163: May 10, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

8. House Vote 258 - H.R. 4970– Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2012. Passage of a bill that narrows the kinds of victims who are protected by the Violence Against Women Act, excluding immigrants, tribal women, lesbians, gay, bisexual and transgender persons. (170 organizations that strongly support VAWA oppose this version of the bill.) Passed 222-205: May 16, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

9. House Vote 264 - Amendment 5 to HR 4310 - Limits Funding for War in Afghanistan to the Withdrawal of U.S. Forces. A vote to adopt an amendment to HR 4310 that requires that all the funds appropriated to the war in Afghanistan be used for the safe and orderly withdrawal of all US troops from Afghanistan. Failed 113-303: May 17, 2012. A yes vote is a +.

10. House Vote 370 - H.R. 5855 – Department of Homeland Security Appropriations Act, 2013. The bill greatly limits ICE flexibility and efficiency, forcing excessive spending on detention beds, for workplace enforcement, and in Maricopa County where racial profiling exists, with restrictions on spending until reports are received. The bill also curtails reproductive rights by prohibiting funds for providing abortions except in cases of rape, incest, or if the life of the woman is endangered by the pregnancy. Passed 234-182: June 7, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

11. House Vote 387 - H.R. 2578 – Conservation and Economic Growth Act. Passed 232-188: June 19, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

12. House Vote 410 - H.R. 4480 – Domestic Energy and Jobs Act. Passage of a bill that would increase oil and gas exploration, development, and production on public lands (including national forests, but not parks and designated wilderness), and place roadblocks to improved air pollution and fuel efficiency standards for cars. Passed 248-163: June 21, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

13. House Vote 450 - H.R. 5972 - Transportation, Housing and Urban Development, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2013. Passage of a bill appropriating funds for the Departments of Transportation, and Housing and Urban Development, and related agencies at $19 billion below last year’s bipartisan agreement and now favored by both parties in the Senate, the President, and House Democrats. 14. House Vote 460 - H.R. 6079 - Repeal of Obamacare Act. A bill to repeal the Affordable Care Act and health-care-related provisions of the Health Care and Education

15. House Vote 482 - Amendment 28 to H.R. 5856 - Department of Defense Appropriations Act, 2013. An amendment prohibiting the use of funds for the operation or maintenance of more than 300 land-based intercontinental ballistic missiles. Failed 136-283: July 18, 2012. A yes vote is a +.

16. House Vote 511 - H.R. 6082 – Congressional Replacement of President Obama’s Energy-Restricting and Job-Limiting Off-shore Drilling Plan in the Continental Shelf. A bill that will strike down President Obama’s Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act and open up a great deal of land to off-shore oil and natural gas drilling with limited consideration of environmental harm. Passed 253-170: July 25, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

17. House Vote 545 - H.R. 8 – American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012. Passage of a bill to continue all the Bush tax cuts, continuing the 15% top rate on capital gains and dividends, and 20% on incomes over $400,000. Passage perpetuates a system of tax inequity in which the wealthiest Americans pay a lower effective rate than middle class Americans. Passed 256-171: Aug. 1, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

18. House Vote 569 - H.R. 5949 - FISA Amendments Act Reauthorization Act of 2012. Passed 301-118: Sept. 12, 2012. A nay vote is a +.

19. House Vote 613 - H.R. 6429 - STEM Jobs Act. A bill that would encourage immigration of highly skilled workers, while eliminating the diversity immigration program. This voting record is offered only as a guide in judging the legislative performance of Members of Congress (MOC), and has several inherent limitations. It is no measure of a legislator’s work in committee. It does not reflect the failure of Congress to deal with major issues, or the individual’s degree of responsibility. It does not reflect a legislator’s lifetime of work.

The methodology of the ADA Voting Record calls for Members who miss a vote, for whatever reason, to be penalized in their final score. Therefore, a Member who agreed with ADA’s position on 19 votes but was absent on the 20th would receive a score of 95%.
